

This do not call program is just wonderful. If the Federal law was made as stringent as New Jersey's then people may have a more peaceful life. Most people that I know just hang up on telemarket calls.